Dear Mrs. Lima,
If there is anything I loved most about my senior year, it was working with you on the Andrean. Thanks for always being there when I needed a friend. I'll treasure those memories forever.
Love Always,
Laura ☺

BEST WISHES TO OUR SENIOR STAFF.

Acquaintance Party

Dear Little, Sis,

Hi! I know you've been nervous these first few days at Andrews, but the seniors have a great way for you to meet everyone here: the Big Sis/Little Sis Party. You can get to know your class, the senior class, and the faculty. The barbecue is always delicious, the games are exciting, and finally, we all get together to have ice cream sundaes. Everyone has a great time. I hope you can come.

Love,
Your Big Sis

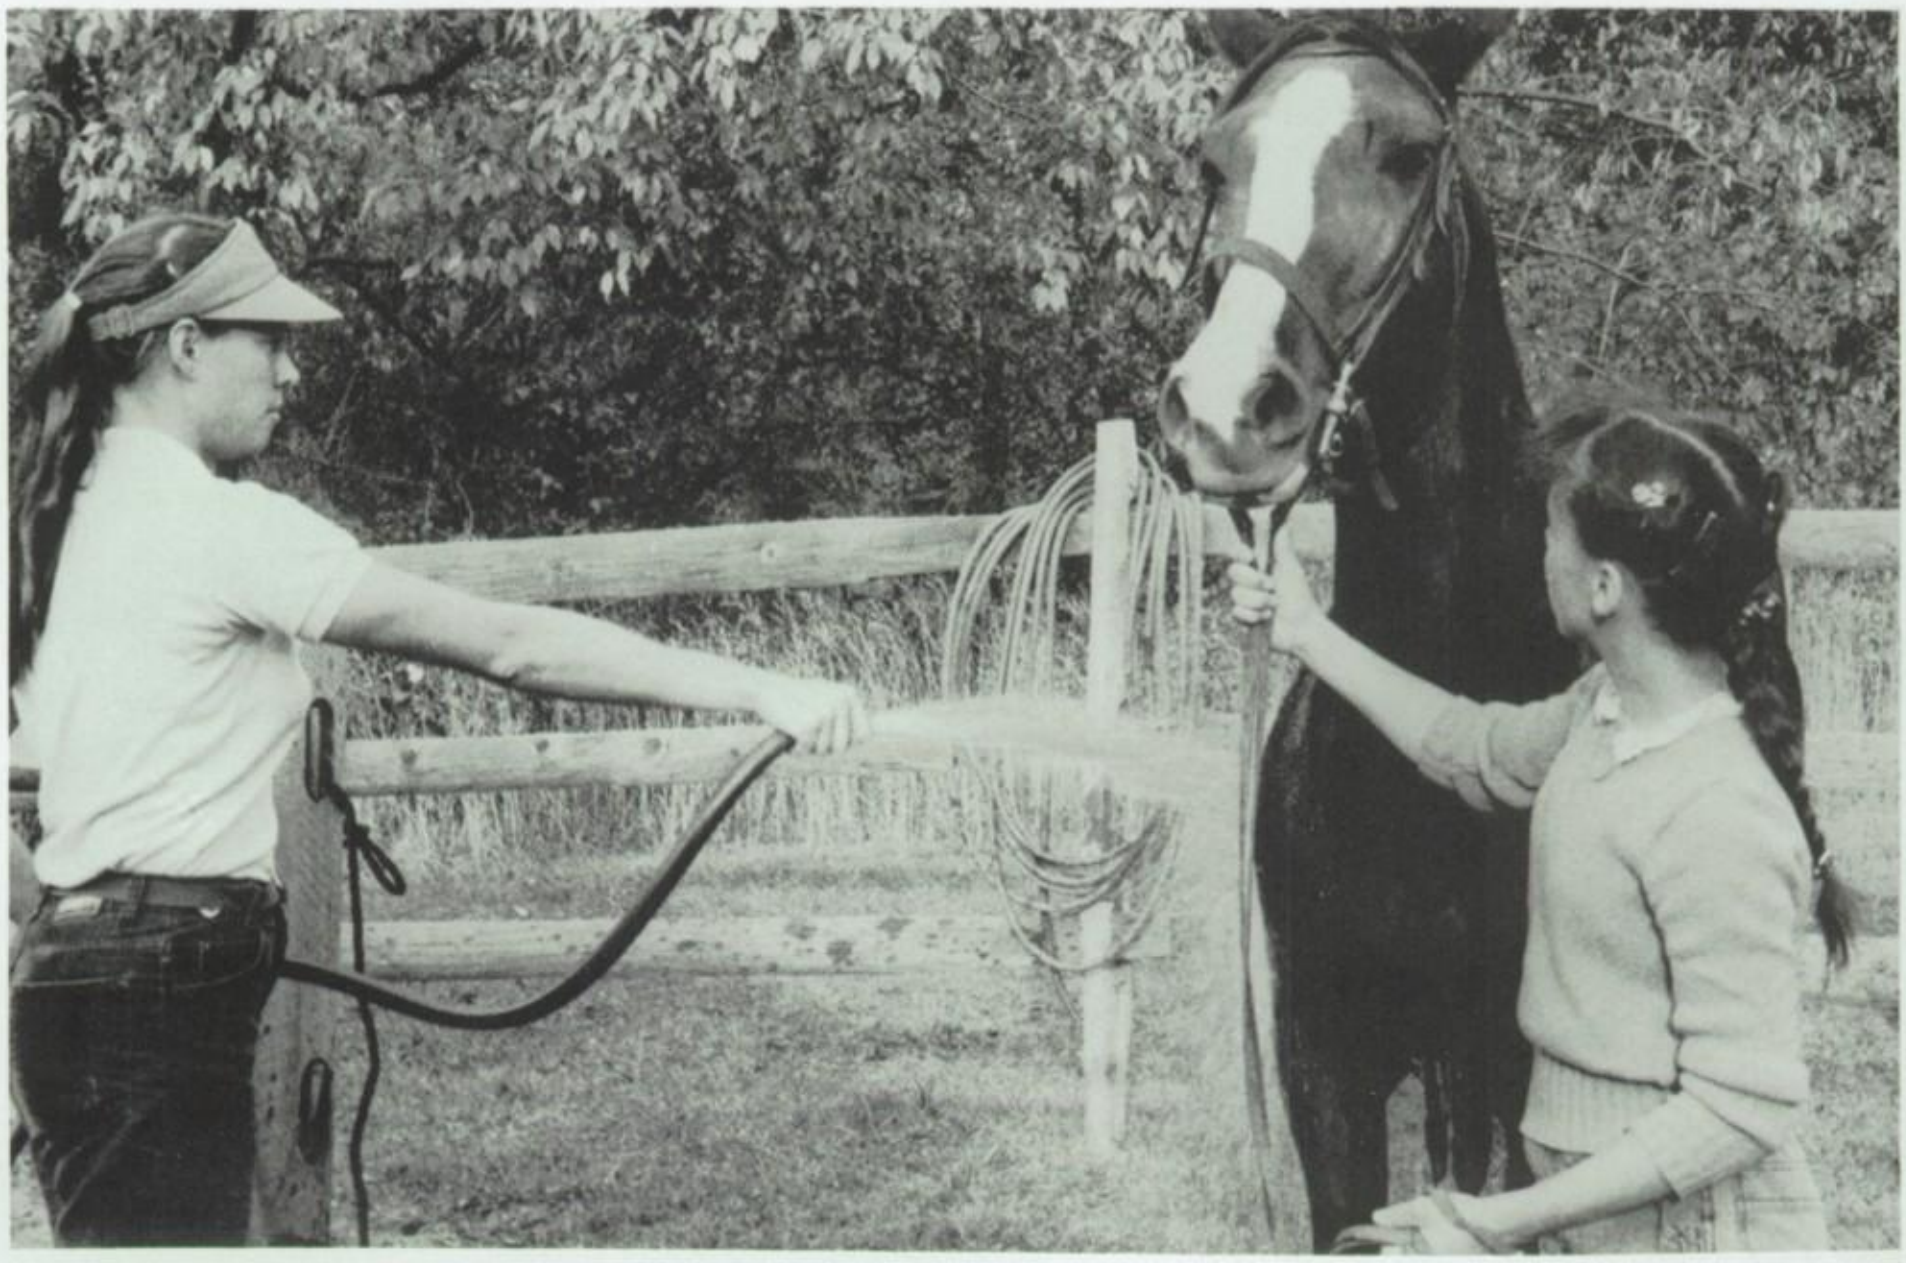
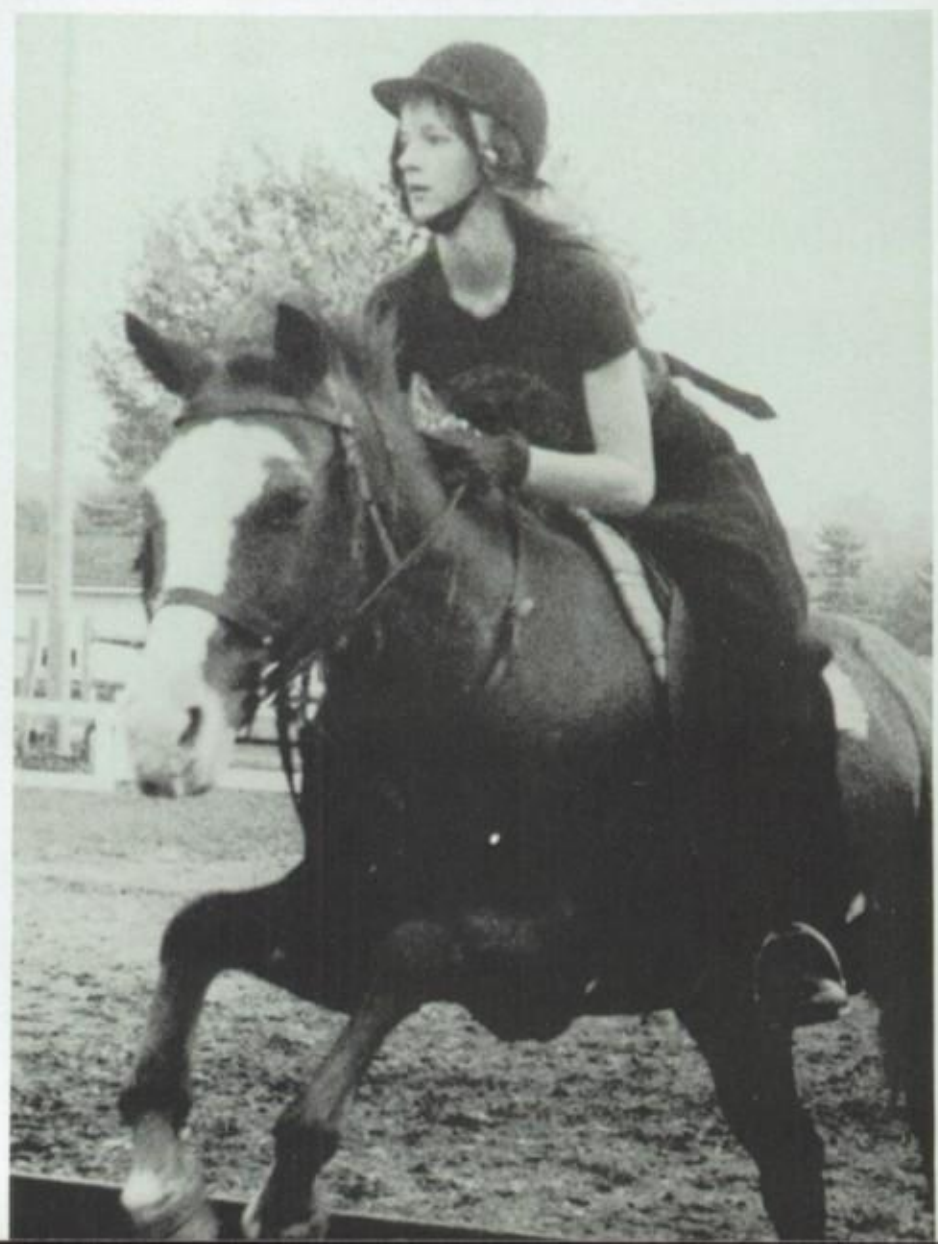
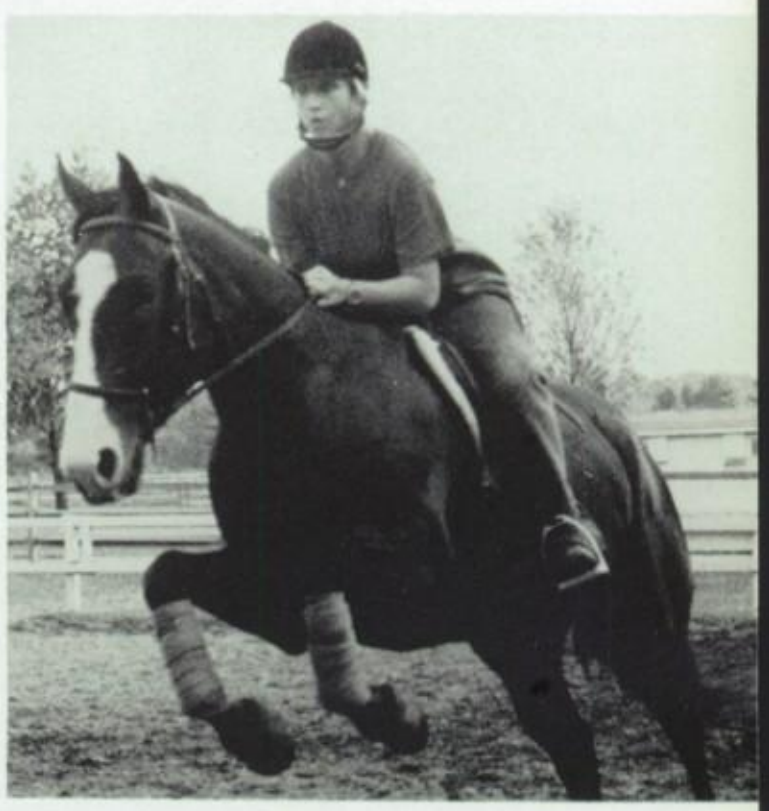
Horses





Wow! I can't believe I made that jump! Two feet! I really think I'll be ready for that horse show on Saturday. It's busy here on horse show days with Janet trying to get ready, girls walking and brushing horses, and other girls not in the program helping out. Riding and shows are just a couple of examples of how I can enjoy horses here at Andrews.



September to June

Student Assemblies

Although most of our Wednesday assemblies feature interesting speakers and performing groups, our very favorite programs are those we students put on ourselves. We've done some very interesting and occasionally educational shows! Spirit Week provided a rousing broom hockey game, the Language Club performed their traditional song and skit show, science classes depicted famous women scientists. Senior Slave Auction, Halloween, Christmas — the fun goes on and on.

Wednesdays

Dances

Hey! Are you coming to The dance over the week-end? They're always a lot of fun! Great music, fabulous DJ's, and you should see the boys' schools invited. Howe, Grand River, St. Joseph's, Benedictine. What a great way to meet guys! Refreshments are served and everyone has a good time. It's sure a great way to spend a Saturday night!

Christmas

Christmas at Andrews is always so festive. There are fantastic assemblies with stories and skits. Mrs. Lupold reads a wonderful story called "Jeremy Creek" and Mr. Peterson leads the choirs through songs of the season. I especially love helping with the decorations for the tree Andrews enters in the Terminal Tower's Festival of Trees. But best of all is the Inner City Party that Student Council puts together for children from Cleveland. They play games, eat, and receive gifts. What a beautiful way to celebrate the season!

Greenfield Village

Hi!

Guess what! Because I'm in the 8th grade I got to go on a field trip to Greenfield Village. Here are some pictures I took of my friends. We really enjoyed the ride on the horse-drawn carriage, and the 12 seat bicycle was incredible! It was so exciting seeing the old shops and museums. I even saw how glass was made by a glass blower. After a long day we attacked the food machines and ate up in our rooms. We had a great time!

November 1, 2

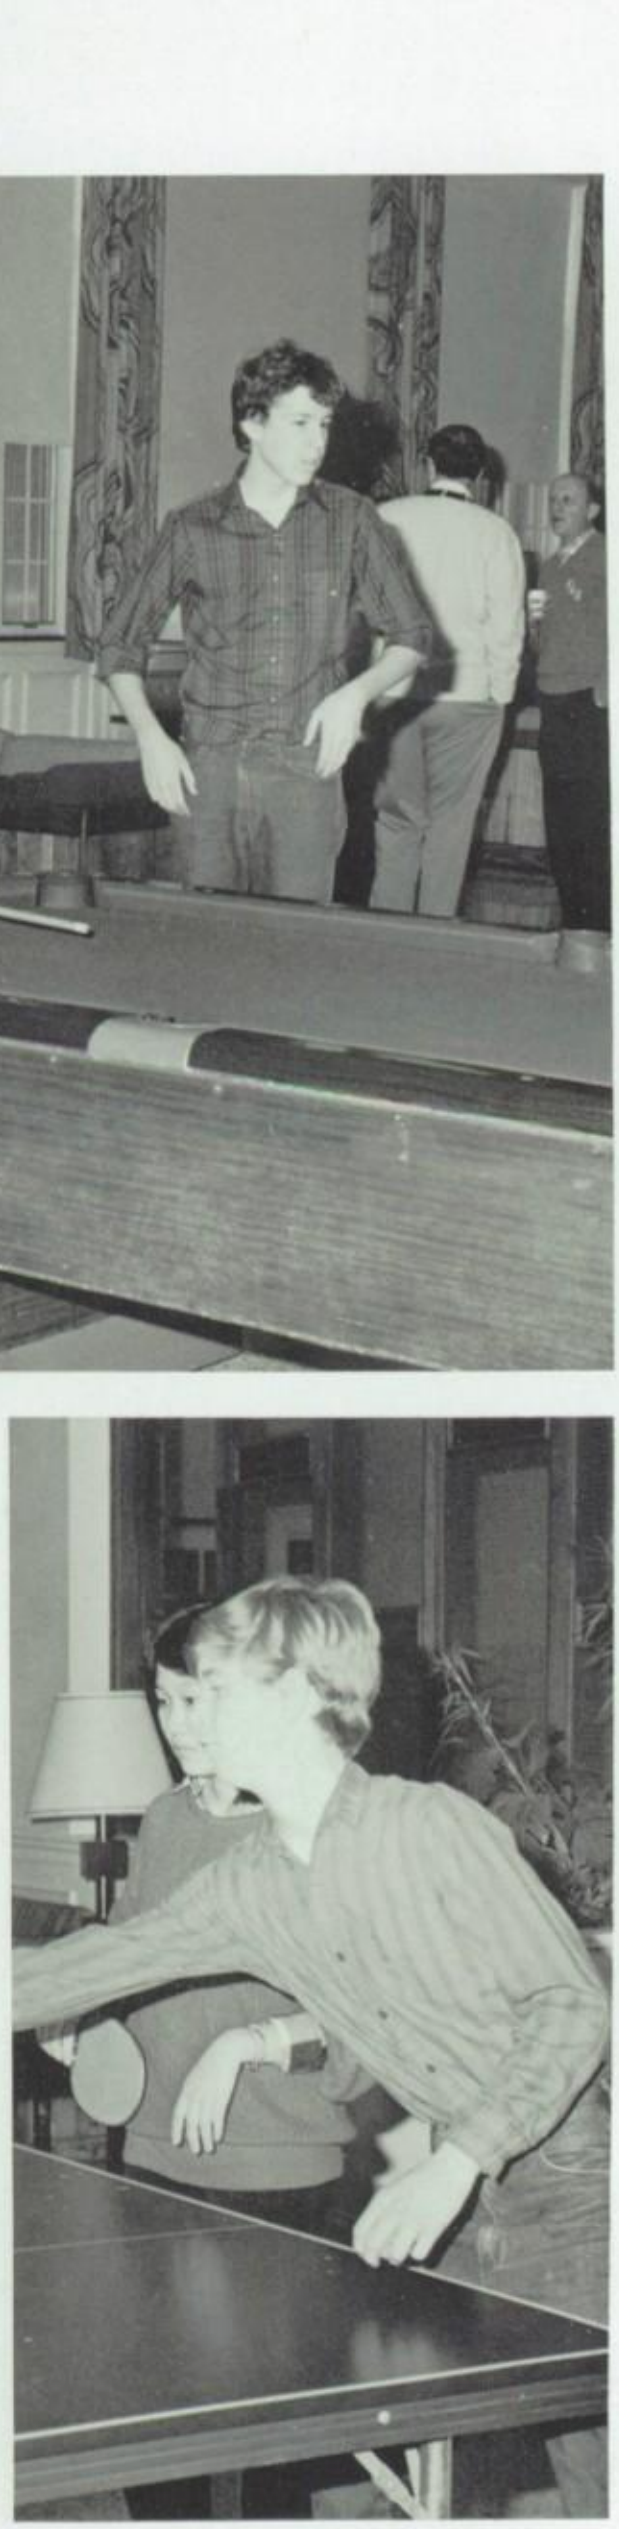
Initiative Training

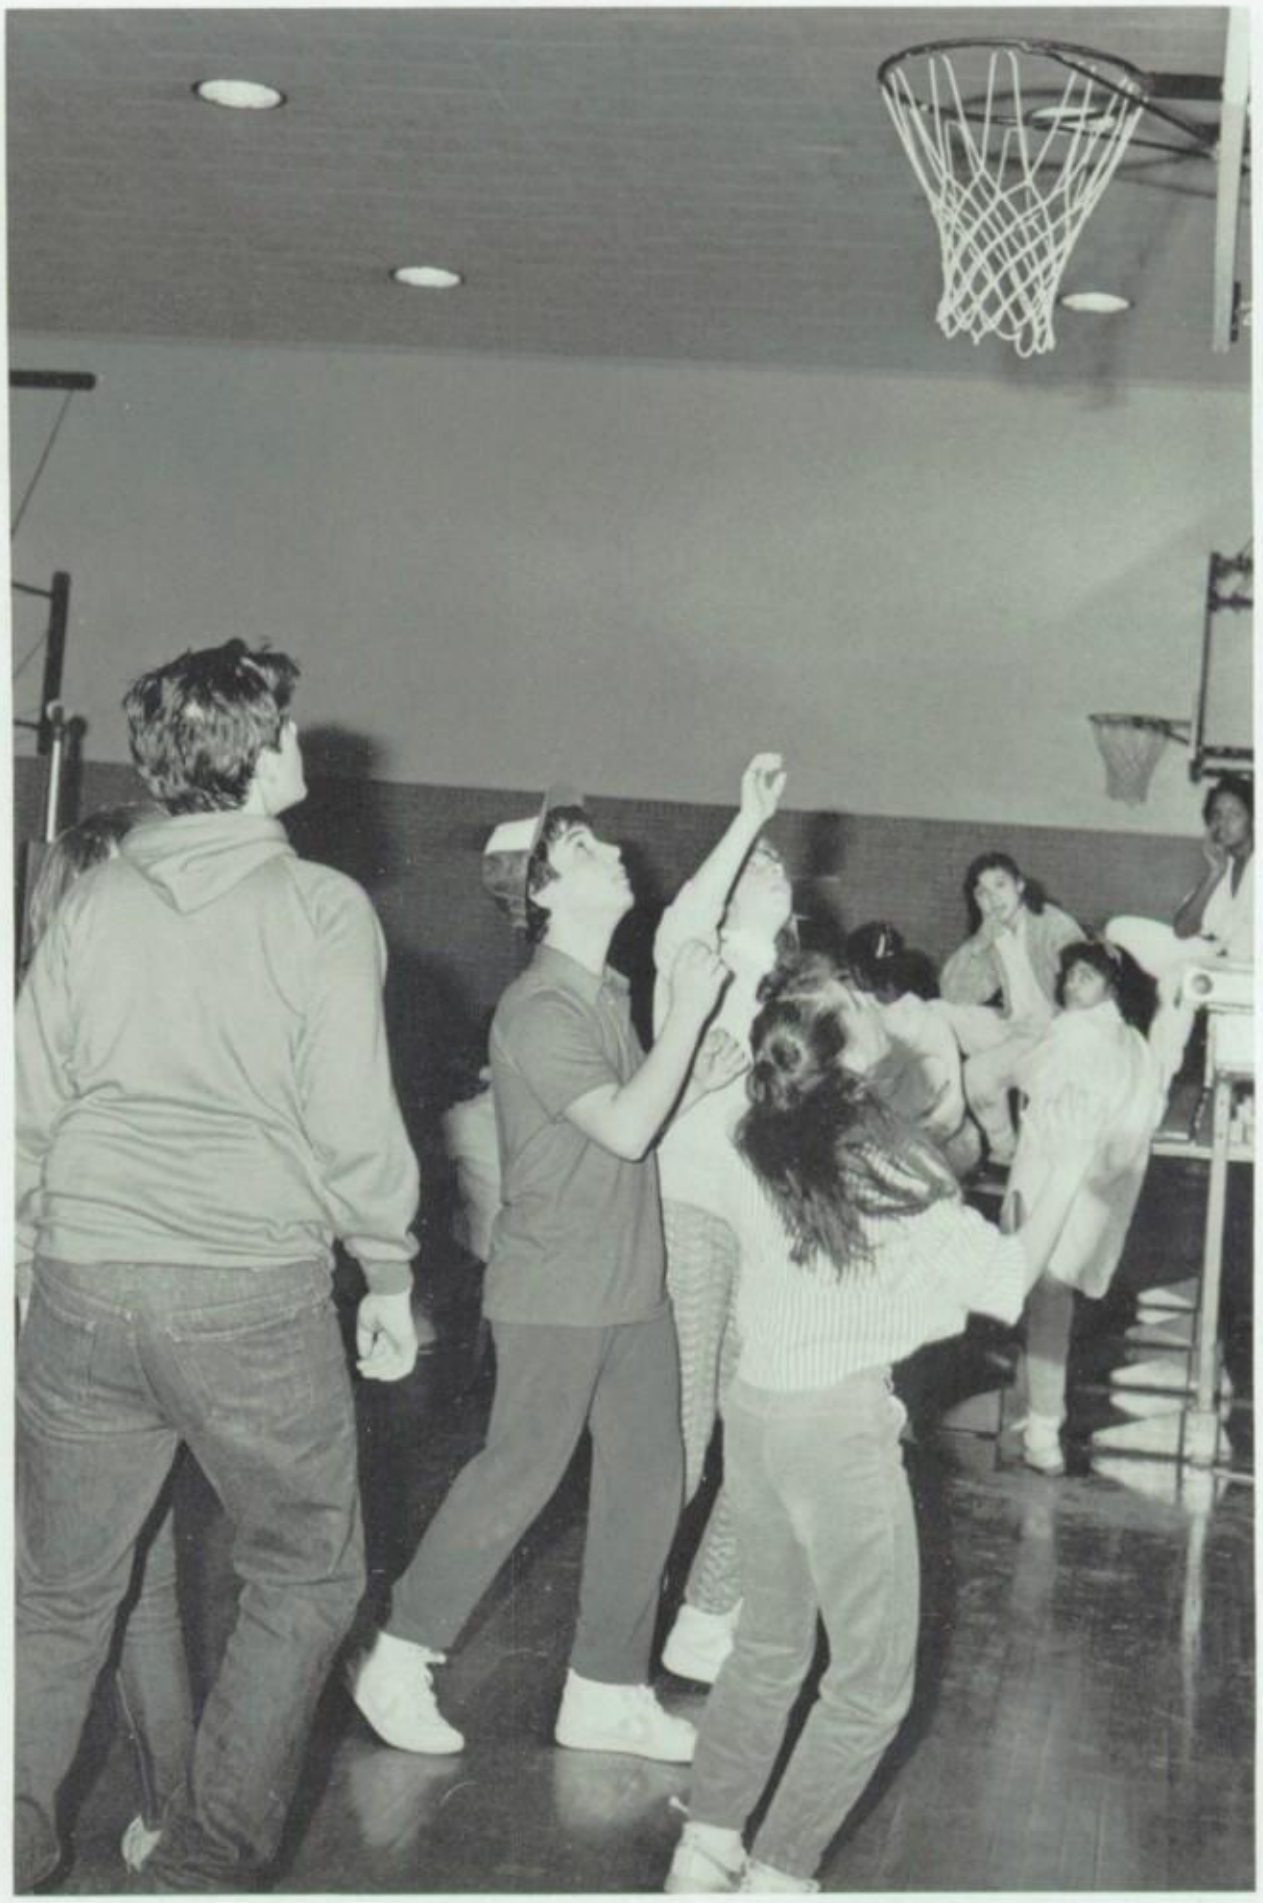
They call this field trip for the tenth grade an initiative training work-shop. Those of us who participated would call it survival of the fittest! We scaled walls, crossed rivers, solved endless problems in the outdoors, and survived the food. Call of the Wild, here we come!

February 18-19

Winter Party

A party! And just for us seventh, eight, and ninth graders! The Andrews Parents Association sponsored this great idea and planned it right in the middle of winter when we really needed it. They supplied pizza and pop, games and activities, and best of all, BOYS from some area schools. I felt a little shy at first, but it wasn't long before I was beating some of the boys at pool, video games, and basketball. I can't wait until next year's party!

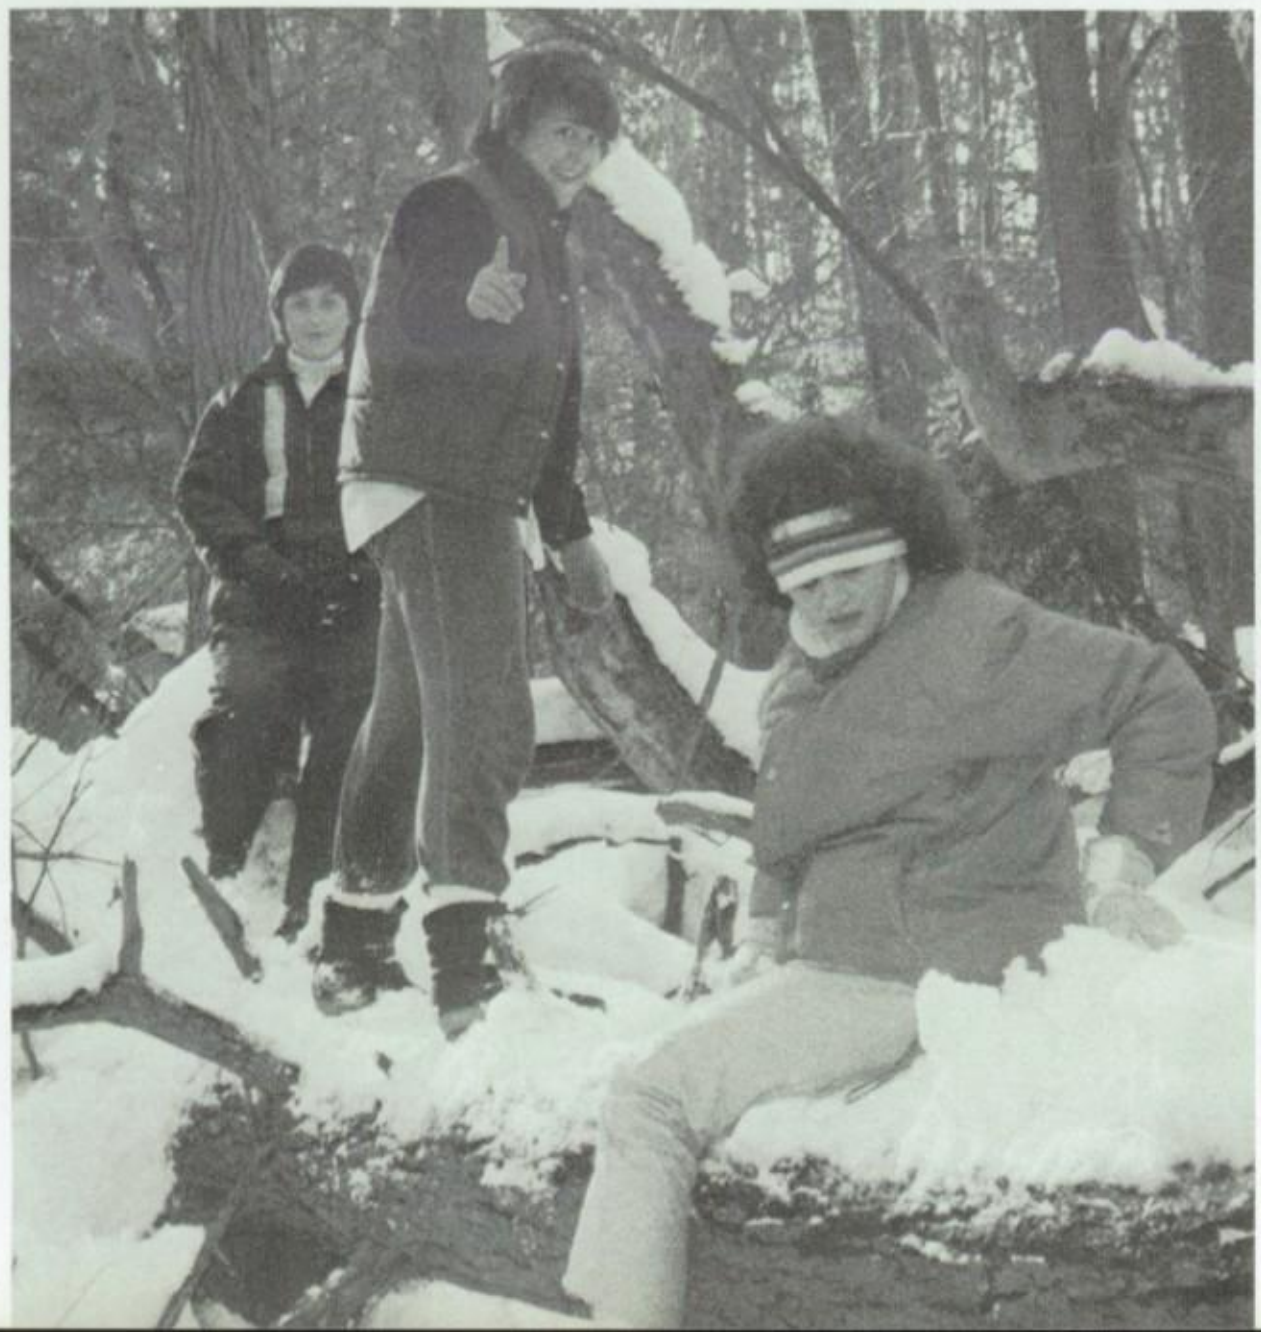




Feb. 1

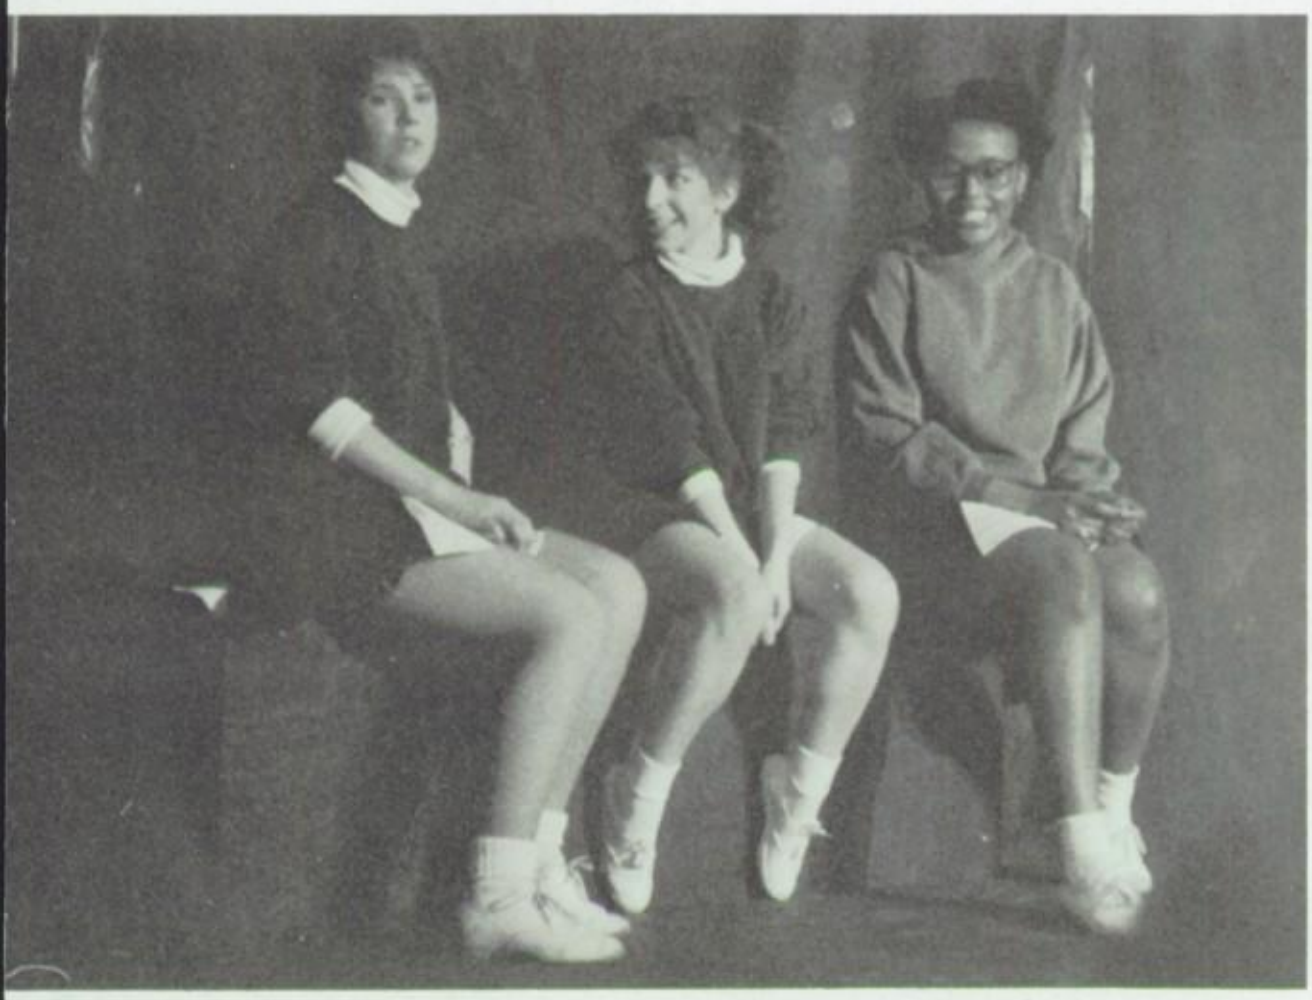
Outdoors Club Trips

We Outdoors Club members are a hardy lot. In October we rough it with backpacks and tents in the Pa. Alleghany Mts. And in January we tough out the snow and ice at Camp Klein. You'll never hear us complain about heavy packs, tired feet, or cold hands. Our biggest worry is what to do when the granola bars run out!



Oct. 11-12, Jan. 10-11

Shadowbox Theatre



Shadowbox Theatre, formed just a year ago, keeps serious drama students busy between large school productions. In the fall we put on one-acts: Who Calls?, Overtones, and Cagebirds. We have also done 2 full-length plays: Vanities and The Octet Bridge Club. We put up with a small stage in the "old rec," but our productions are excellent.

March 7, 8

Madrigal Tour

The highlight of the Choir tour, besides the concerts and sightseeing of Virginia and Washington, was the induction of members into the newly-formed SBS (Southern Belle Society). To join, all the girls (and Mr. Peterson) had to do was pick a "Southern" name such as Pammy Brook, Annabelle Fay, Prissy Ripplemead, and Melvin Pembrook.

March 15-22

Career Day

Dear Mom and Dad,

I've changed what I want to be! Again! Instead of a zoo-keeper, I'd like to be a nanny. I know what you're thinking, but it really is a good idea. I heard about it on Career Day. There were so many interesting speakers including a trustee, Beth Albright, a student's mother, Mary Valentino, and a disc jockey, Kim Scott. The keynote speaker was Lynn Woodman who spoke on preparing for life and becoming self-supporting. I hope we have another career day soon.

Love,
Me

February 12

Toronto

April 18-19

Just when the year starts to drag, the class trip is planned and we have something to look forward to. Our ninth grade went to Toronto and it was great! Niagara Falls and the Science Museum were the main events, but the trips to McDonald's were also highlights. A few of us even saw people we knew. We'll have to tell all the 8th graders to be sure to go next year.

Southern Ohio

Dear Prospective Andrews Students,

Field trips are the best! I'm in the seventh grade and we just took the greatest tour of Southern Ohio. We went to Columbus where we saw a mock trial. And we also saw Roscoe and Zoar Village. We especially liked the gift shops, and when we got back to our rooms we had a popcorn fight. I can't wait to see what they plan for us in eighth grade!

Proms

The proms at Andrews are always eagerly anticipated. The 9th and 10th grades plan a semi-formal and the juniors and seniors go all out with a formal — tuxedos, gowns, corsages, the whole works! While the Social Center sets a beautiful stage for the semi-formal, this year's prom was held off-campus for the first time. The seniors and juniors had a special table designated the "fun" table where they could play balloon volleyball and ring toss with a candle and lemon peel. Both evenings were a huge success!

Lest we forget that friendship's gentle hand
Hast sealed a tie unbroken through the years.

Launch your ship and hoist the sail,
Take the wind that cannot fail.
Hand to tiller, eyes on sun,
Confidence
Will bear you on.

Stormy day, spray flying,
Gulls crying, and over the bay
A little ship tossing and trying
And forging its way into safe shelter.

Enough that I may be like yonder vessel
Bouyant and fearless when oceans are gray —
Steadfast and strong when the storm seemeth long, And the shore far away.

My friend, I do not wish for you to go,
But life will not wait for us, I know.
Don't look back and see the tears streaking down my face.
In my heart you'll never be replaced.
Hold tight to today and it will take you to tomorrow.
Hold your head high and you will see that the sorrow
Will soon fade with a dream that is yet to be.
We're going to be the best of all, just you wait and see.
Take me with you when you go. I'll stay forever in your heart.
That way we'll never have to say we lost a part of ourselves.
You're just the part of me I can't let go, and I thank God you are a friend I'll always know.
So thanks for growing up with me, my friend.
Parting now, we'll reach for the stars and see it's not an end,
But the beginning of a life we've dreamt of for so long.
Now it's time to show the world we've made each other strong.

And as I leave, I know I'll be leaving my best friend,
A friend who taught me right
from wrong and weak from

That's a lot to learn.
What, what can I give you in return?
If you wanted the moon I
would try to make a start.
But I would rather let you give me my heart
To sir with love.

Senior Class Officers

Jerritta Kyser, Soc. Ch.; Vicki Tabernik, V. Pres.; Amy Frable, Pres.; Priscilla Gentry, Sec.; Meriwether Gilmore, Treas.

The 1986 senior year has been full of growth and decision making. I have watched you seniors emerge as individuals while never letting go of your class unity. Of course, many times we differed and divided, but the end result was always the same — learning. You learned what it meant to compromise and what it meant to accept. I want to thank you for all the time you gave to helping each other and me. I truly believe that you are all special people. I am proud to be a part of your class.

I wish you well,
Amy Frable,
President

We, the Survivors

We, the Survivors, will always remember the caring administrators and faculty, the good friends we'll have for the rest of our lives. These memories are what Andrews means to us. These will always represent the best of times.

DETERMINATION means "never give up!"

Kneeling: L. Pitts; R. Davis; J. Harrington; N. McDonald; A. Crognale. Standing: M. Newman, Coach; B. Butts; K. Battaglia; N. Adebayo; C. Colagros; C. Pedala; M. Chapin.

Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah! Three cheers for our cross country team! The first cheer is for the team's good attitude and highspirits throughout the season. The second cheer is for the team's determination and "never give up" attitude. The third cheer is because the team worked so hard to meet the challenges of the sport. Although officially we had a losing season, off the record, we were real winners. Congratulations to the cross country team.

PATIENCE pays off!

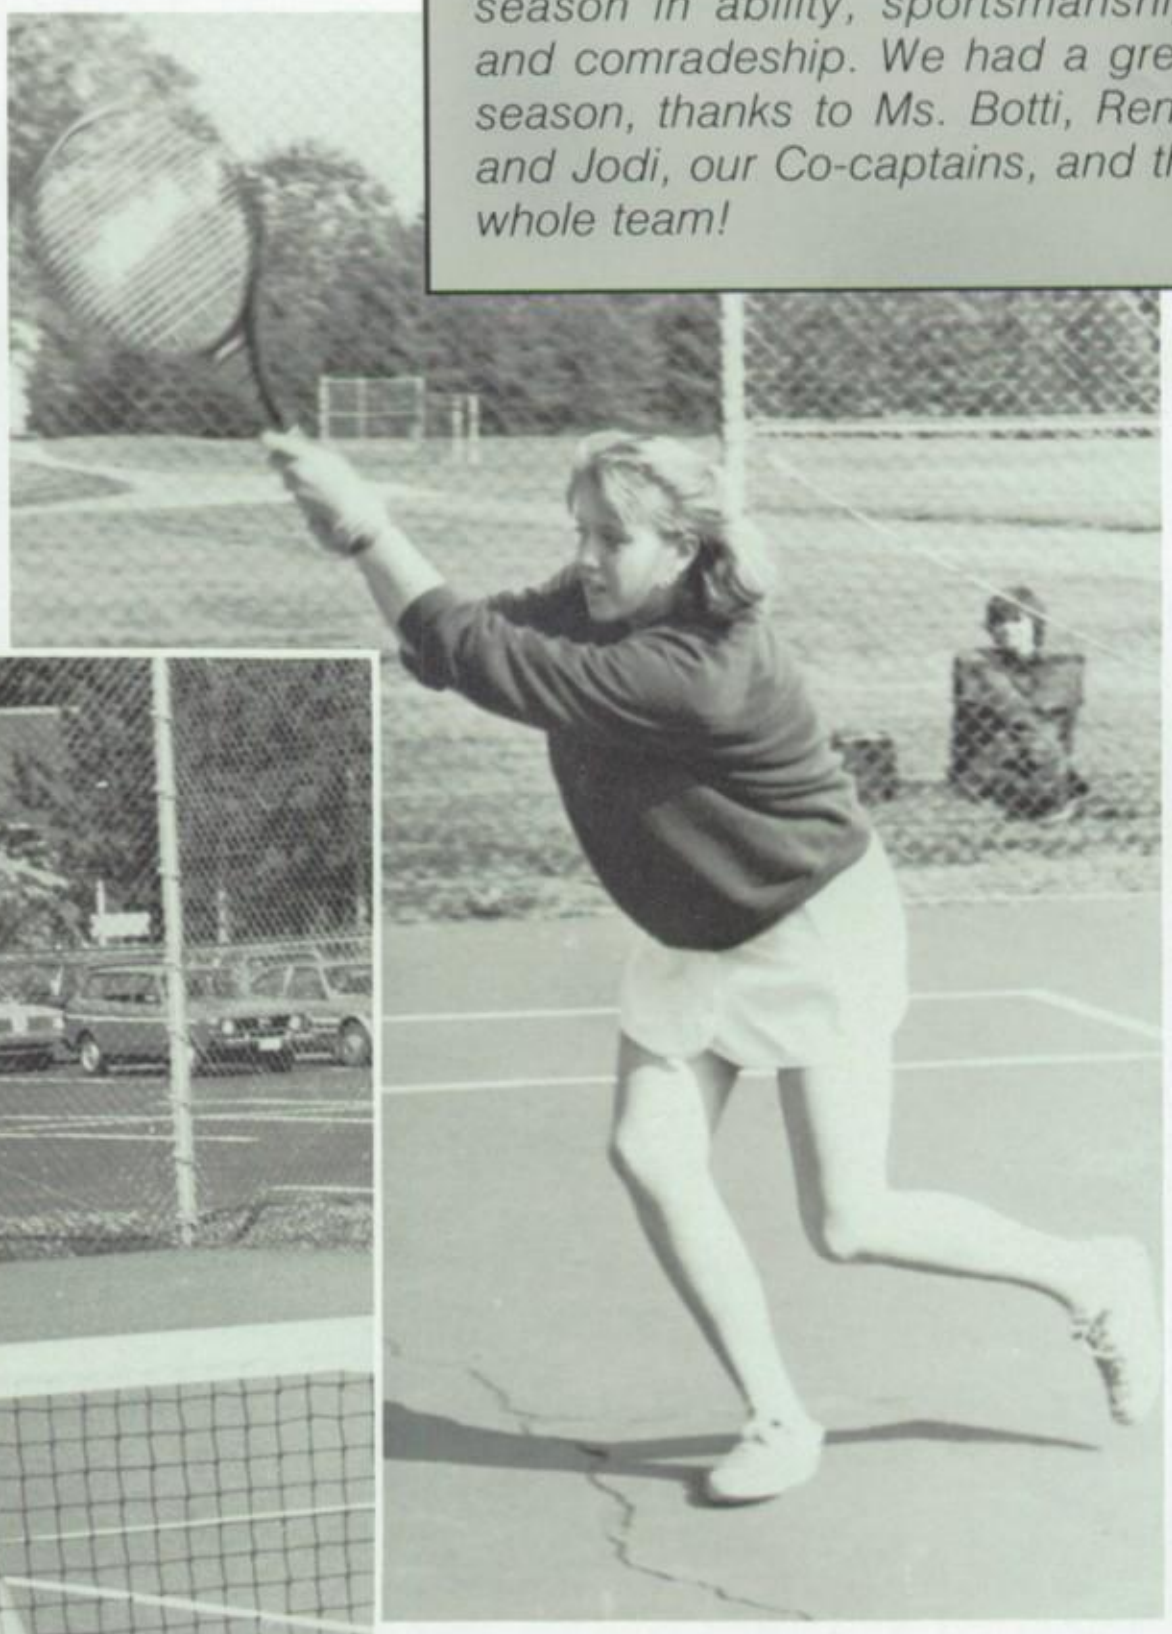
Row 1: P. Berens, S. Banwell, A. Frable, P. Gentry, K. Dehne, R. Seton. Row 2: B. Howard, Coach; L. Balaguer, J. Hill, S. Hill, M. Kleinschmidt, Coach. Row 3: *T. Hellegers, E. This year has been the most successful season for the Andrews 1985 Field Hockey Team. Our defensive players were all tough and always willing to put up a strong fight. The offensive players were always ready to charge the other team. Those famous words — scoop, flick, drive, push, pass, and lunge — will always be remembered by teammates, thanks to Miss Howards's persistent screams. How about Ms. Kleinschmidt's awesome aerobics at the beginning of the season?

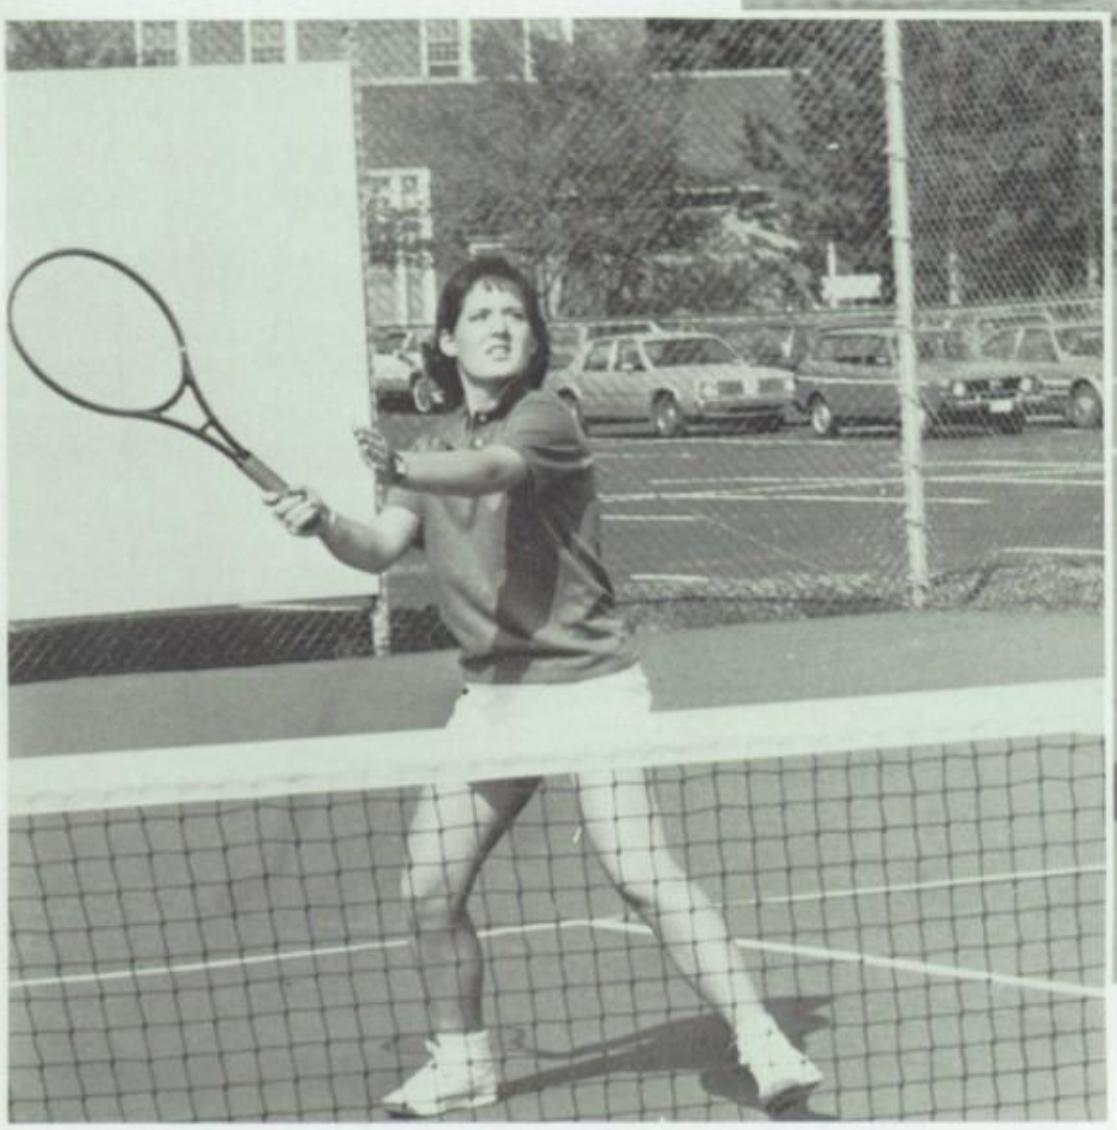
This season was full of wonderful memories: joy, pain, laughter, panic, tears.

PRACTICE becomes common goal!

Kneeling: K. Fulham; H. Sippola; M. Gilmore; P. Meil; K. Bernecker. Standing: A. Botti, Coach; L. Round; A. Galbreath; L. Schlafman; L. Winans; R. Hoffheimer; R. Grignon; J. Dustin (not pictured)

"Toot, toot," went the tennis team van off to Mentor-Heisley Racquet Club. A Match!! Thanks to Ms. Botti's driving skills and the manager's organization, the season started off well. The team had a common goal — to practice, have fun, and learn more about the game. Great improvements were made during the season in ability, sportsmanship, and comradeship. We had a great season, thanks to Ms. Botti, Rendi and Jodi, our Co-captains, and the whole team!





TEAMWORK has real meaning.

Volleyball is a unique sport in that it can have no heroes. There can be specialty players but no one can play all 6 positions by themselves, no matter how good they are. Our season wasn't the most winning but we played better as a team than most schools. We learned the real meaning of teamwork at the South tournament when we pulled together to keep our serve!

Kneeling: P. Babcock; R. Beck; D. Mramor; L. Berens; K. Parr. Standing: J. Szadkowski, Coach; A. Tortora; C. Carpinelli; L. Harris; K. Oberholtzer; B. Clemons; L. Mitch.

AGGRESSIVENESS carries team through.

Sitting: K. Oberholtzer; L. Pitts; A. Frable; Y. Nishioeda; K. Parr; R. Beck; Y. Lorenzo; D. Robertson. Standing: T. Springer; B. Butts; P. Babcock; J. Szadkowski, Coach; M. Newman, Ass. Coach; L. Harris; J. Cunningham.

All good things must come to an end. For the Varsity basketball team, however, the memories continue. It all started with pre-season practices, harsh at first, uncontrollable wild practices when Ski wasn't there and Amy and Tracie tried to keep some sanity. Games began and so did this year's referees — Poindexter and Twinkle-toes. Three technicals were given this season — all to Robin. Her bruises, sprains, and bloody noses were worth it. Our team was led with speed by "Speedy Gonzales" Karla, determination by Lisa the "One-and-only" Pitts, and effort by Yolanda. We could count on Joi's usual 10 blocked shots, Brenda's never-miss baseline shots, Dani's true-grit aggressiveness, Kim's quick defensive hands, Yuko's faking ability, and Lisa Harris' game-winning foul shots that beat W.R.A. Each player had her own uniqueness; together we were a family, on and off the court.

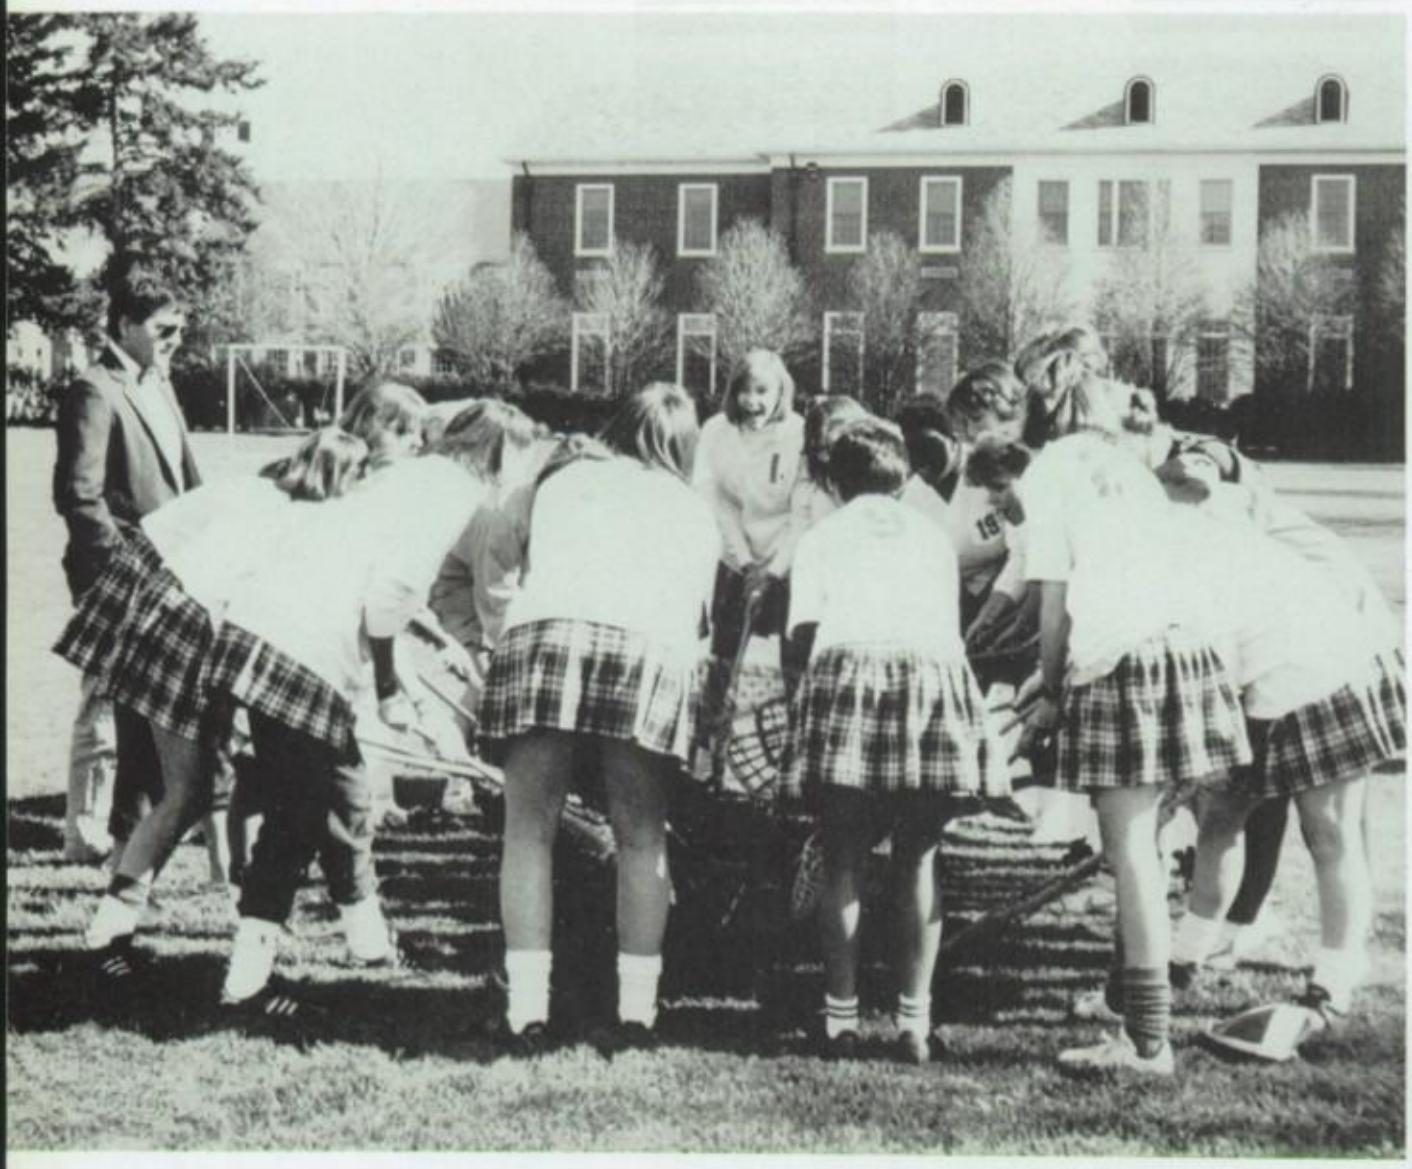
SPIRIT unites Lacrosse team.



Front: N. McDonald, L. Siegner, S. Banwell, P. Gentry, A. Frable, K. Gilboy, K. Bernecker, L. Balaguer. Back: D. Haghighi, Coach; P. Babcock, L. Rownd, E. Burgess, J. Kriebl, F. Pittman, D. Henderson, J. Coy, P. Meil, C. Stevens, E. Slokar, C. Muzik, N. Lucarelli, M. Rose, H. Richards, R. Weber, Man.; L. Shlafman; (Not pictured) N. Speas, Asst. Coach; H. Burrows.

"Let's go, Let's fight, Let's win!" cried the 1986 Lacrosse team, waving their sticks in the air. Through disagreeable weather and many injuries, the team played its best on the field. Adjusting especially well to their new preppy male coach, Dan, they worked together and constantly showed their spirit and pride.

EFFORT Highlights Softball Team

Standing: N. Smith, Asst.; B. Clemons, L. Wright, D. Schwieman, L. Mitch, L. Pitts, K. Oberholtzer, P. Reynolds, Coach.

Varsity softball had a rain-shortened but successful season. Two significant highlights were an 11 inning, 1 run loss to Hawken and a 5-3 victory over Gilmour. Games were accented by the outstanding play of seniors Beck, Kyser, Pitts, and Merchant. These players, along with Managers Winans, Nishioeda, and Farrington, will be missed next year. At the spring sports banquet, these players received awards: Jackie Qualls, Sportsmanship; Robin Richards, Most Improved; Crystal Ryan and Lois Mitch, Best Defense, and Robin Beck, Best Offense.

When only a photograph will do

There are certain times when a mood, and feeling, and special time of life can only be captured with a photograph. It's often said that a photograph is worth a thousand words. What more can we say?
